

Mission Candidate Application

(1) Name, personal contact info.

(2) Have you read, do you understand and are you in agreement with the three step Missionary Application Process? Step 1 is this written application, step 2 is a personal interview, step 3 is an appearance at a celebration service where you gather names from which you raise support.

(3) Describe your mission trip.

- What mission agency has accepted you?
- Explain your specific mission trip. If it's to a reached people group, describe how the strategy is empowering and not enabling.
- Describe why you chose this specific agency and mission.
- Provide a contact person with that agency who is handling your candidate process.
- Will the agency train you in partnership development?

(4) Describe yourself.

- Family; parents, spouse, joys and hardships growing up.
- Friends; believers and nonbelievers
- Finances; debt
- Health; physical status
- Tell us about any mission trips you have gone on with others and how that went.
- Past, present issues that if became known would cause conflict with others or impact the testimony of Jesus Christ?
- Have you ever seen a counselor, psychologists or psychiatrist? Please explain.
- Have you ever engaged in any self-injurious behavior; cutting, eating disorder, end of life issues? Please explain.
- Do you have same sex attraction urges? Please explain.

(5) Describe your spiritual journey

- Salvation, from unbelief to belief
- Sanctification, from belief to now. Where are you in your spiritual journey?
- Describe the gospel.
- How does the gospel influence your decision about this trip?

(6) Church

- Are we your home Church? In other words, is this the Church where you faithfully attend, serve, give and if asked, the one place you would vote? If so, why is this your home Church? If not, are you willing to make it so?

- Please note that membership is not a requirement for missionary service.
 - How long have you faithfully attended church?
 - If this is your sending Church, you will be care for more closely than if it was not. This includes establishing a close relationship with you on our part to be aware if your field and stateside needs. It also necessities that you be in communication with our mission team on a regular basis. Are you in agreement with this relationship?
- (7) Statement of faith; Have you read, and do you agree with our statement of faith? If not, what reservations do you have?
- (8) Service;
- Describe where you serve in ministry.
 - Explain the joys, hardship and growth you've experienced.
- (9) Describe how you carry out the spiritual disciplines of; devotions, witnessing, praying and fellowship
- (10) Describe your experience with making disciples. If applicable include sharing your faith, teaching others to grow and training others to go.
- (11) Describe your vision. What are your future plans?
- (12) References; Please provide the names of three people who can serve as references. These should be people who will speak honesty and with knowledge about you. If possible, they should include a mentor, a ministry partner and a student. We will send them a reference form and they will send it back to us.
- (13) Date and printed and signature

Please submit this application to the mission team at the following address...