

The 3G Chart
GATHER Celebration Service	GROW Small groups	GO Disciple making teams
The chairs are in rows facing forward.	The chairs are in a circle facing inward.	The chairs are in a circle facing outward (figuratively).
The communication style is lecture. Questions are rhetorical. Content is driven by the speaker.	The communication style is conversational. Questions are answered by others. The content is driven by the group.	The communication style is instructional. The content is driven by the trainer.
The role of the participant is to listen.	The role of the participant is to share with those in the group.	The role of the participant is to witness to those outside the team.
The goal is to show up.	The goal is to be discipled by those in the group.	The goal is to disciple those outside the team.
The expectation is regular attendance.	The expectation is faithful presence.	The expectation is radical obedience.
Gather events are for those who want to discover.	Grow groups are for those who want to develop.	Go Teams are for those who want to duplicate.
The intent is to be friendly toward those who attend.	The intent is to make friends with those in the group	The intent is to make friends with those outside the team.
The strategy is carried out by telling.	The strategy is carried out by teaching.	The strategy is carried out by training.
The transforming elements are communal praise and teaching.	The transforming elements are love and truth.	The transforming elements are modeling and coaching.
Weekly meetings are like conferences. Show up, enjoy the music, and learn from the message.	Weekly meetings are like family gatherings. Show up and enjoy the people.	Weekly meetings are like football huddles. Show up to learn the play. Then run the play between meetings.
The outcome is membership * * In the Body of Christ	The outcome is maturity.	The outcome is multiplication.
Attend the meeting each week to learn about the word of God.	Attend the meeting each week to be loved by the people of God.	Attend the meeting each week to learn how to love others for God.
Migration to a Grow group is expected.	Migration to a Go team is encouraged.	Migration from a Go team is eventual.