

Disciple Making Movements (DMM) are often described through the image of seven sails. A ship moves only when sails are raised by human hands and filled by the wind of God's choosing. In the same way, DMM depends on faithful obedience and divine initiative—distinct roles, working together, producing movement only God can sustain.